1963 * Celebrating 56 Years * 2019

Congratulations to the Class of 2019! The TST wishes all the best to our graduating seniors as they pursue their future academic goals and achievements. Thank you to all of our community members who supported our seniors through the Door to Door Drive. We also would like to thank the following businesses who donated through our annual business drive: Bianco's Catering, Brick House Pizza, Dana Wallboard, Dracut Dental Group, Creative Minds Early Learning Center, Lamco Systems, Dr. Mandell, DMD, Mill City Iron, Reichheld and Ting Orthodontics, Samson Concrete, Tyngs Tarry Hair Design and Tyngsborough Cosmetic Dentistry. Next month we will recognize our generous donors who contributed to our "Named Scholarships." Through the generosity of our entire community, we were able to award over $36,000 in scholarships to 43 of our graduating seniors from Tyngsborough.

The TST has been awarding scholarships for 56 years! The work is rewarding and our fundraising events are just as fun to work on as they are to attend. June 13th is our reorganization meeting and we may have several open officer positions. If you have been thinking of getting involved, please consider joining the TST. We welcome all new members!

We are currently looking for a community member who can help us update our website. If you are able to donate a few hours each month to help us with this valuable talent, please let us know! We meet the 2nd Wednesday of each month, from September through June, at the Tyngsborough Town Hall.

TYNGSBORO GARDEN CLUB

Our May meeting was a potluck dinner at a member's home. As always we discovered what creative cooks we have within our membership.

On April 20th we were at the Sherburne Estate Nature Center for Earth Day and enjoyed a day in the rain with all the hardy people who also came to enjoy the presentations and events.

May 18th- Thank you to everyone who stopped by the combination library book fair and Garden Club plant sale. We had many beautiful plants to sell from members' gardens and beautiful raffle items.

Our last meeting on June 4th will begin at 6:00. We will meet at Mahoney's Garden Center in Chelmsford for container ideas as we get ready for our summer plantings.

During the summer the Garden Club will take care of plantings at the senior center, fire station, Brinley Terrace, Sherburne Estate Nature Center, and triangle.

The Garden Club meets the first Tuesday of the month September-November and February-April at the Evangelical Congregational Church at 6:45. New members are always welcome. Please come join us for one of our meetings, enjoy the presentation, and meet some new friends.

HAVE THE HUMILITY TO REVEAL YOUR SINS

By Nathan Combs

Ever since Adam and Eve hid in the bushes after eating the forbidden fruit, people have tried to conceal their sins. David impregnated the wife of a trusted soldier, then tried to cover it up by secretly murdering him so he could take her into his harem. Judas secretly went to the Jewish leadership to betray his Lord and acted the part of a faithful disciple until the moment he approached Jesus in the garden with the temple guards. In considering these Biblical examples, the harm of papering over sin is clearly seen. But sin concealment is not just an ancient problem - we personally face it as well.

The reality is that all of us are dealing with sinful struggles. The apostle John bluntly tells Christians that "if we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us" (1 John 1.8). It's one thing to agree with this Scripture in principle, but it's quite another to actually live like we believe it. When we take the time to actually look carefully at our own sinful attitudes and deeds, we probably don't feel like sharing those things with other people! It's much easier to keep our problems hidden, put on our clean Sunday clothes, smile artificially, and pretend like we have spotless lives.

James, the brother of Jesus, writes in James 5.16 - "Therefore, confess your sins to one another and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person has great power as it is working." Have you obeyed this verse recently? Have you approached a strong Christian, opened up about a sin, and asked him to pray for you? There are many excuses we might offer, such as "I just don't have strong relationships I can trust." Although the verse certainly implies that we would approach a "righteous person" to intercede on our behalf, there is no human relationship so strong that it removes the painful sting of revealing sin. Regardless of how trustworthy another person is, confession is inherently uncomfortable. Consider Adam and Eve: they had every reason to trust their Creator, yet they did not immediately run to God and only divulged their sins when forced.

Rather than delaying confession until we can feel entirely comfortable with the situation (which will never happen), we need to embrace humility and get busy opening ourselves up. Just a chapter before James 5.16 is James 4.10 - "Humble yourselves before the Lord, and he will exalt you." Interestingly, when God rebuked Job's sinful three friends (Job 42.7-9), he didn't tell them to directly pray to him for forgiveness, he told them to go to Job and have him pray for their souls. How humbling it must have been for them to ask the man they had bitterly argued with to intercede on their behalf! But then, humility was the point. Are we more interested in preserving an illusion of spotlessness, or allowing the Lord to heal us through obedience to his words?

PERSONAL POSSESSIONS CAUSE THE MOST FIGHTS

By Edward H. Adamsky

You cannot always prevent your kids from fighting. But you can minimize the problems by leaving clear directions. Most fights are not about money, they are about personal possessions. Money is easily divisible and has no sentimental value, but jewelry, silverware, china and memorabilia cannot be divided. Someone wins, and someone loses when dividing up the stuff. The best way to reduce the chance of fighting is to make your wishes clearly known.

Lifetime gifts are a great idea. But make sure to do it in front of witnesses and consider including a letter that says you made the gift. Sometimes you can even give something away while still keeping it. You could tell everyone that you are giving a certain household item (like a painting or antique piece of furniture) to someone and provide that person with a written letter stating so, while also entering into an agreement with that person that you can hold that item for them in your own home until you die.

If you have really important or valuable items that you want to go to a specific person, consider putting them in your Will. It is a legal writing that is binding on everyone and hard to argue against. "If it's written in the Will it must really be what mom wanted." You might want to check with children and others to ensure they really want what you are giving to them.

You can also direct that certain items be sold, and the money divided among your children. Your children might be pleased at how much money certain items may get at auction. If a child really wants an item, they can buy it at the auction knowing they will get a part of the proceeds.

If you feel that none of your personal possessions have much value and it's not worth noting them in your Will, then you can make a separate list or writing that your family can follow. With a specific clause in your Will, this separate list can be legally binding. Or, you may leave a list as guidance and hope that your children follow it or diverge from it with mutual agreement.

You may want to get items appraised now or direct your executor to get an official appraisal after your passing. This can be important for tax purposes and can also give everyone a clear sense of value when dividing items. If everyone gets a similar value, it may be less disappointing to someone who gets fewer items.

You can also suggest that your children engage in a lottery of sorts when dividing personal property. Names can be placed in a hat with the slips pulled out in order of who gets to make the first choice of items. You may want to limit the items up for a lottery and also have the appraised values handy. This can be done in person (which is easiest) or remotely with pictures and lists. You can also reverse the order of choices so that the last person to choose is the first person to make a second choice.

You can also have an internal "auction." You can use tokens, points or even real dollars and have the family members bid on and buy items. With points or tokens, each person would have a limited amount with which to bid so they have to make a choice of how much they want something. With real money, it can be divided among the family after the auction.

Leave your family with clear directions, good suggestions, and the tools to reduce stress and disappointment and you will be doing them a bigger favor than just leaving them a bunch of stuff to divide.

FRIENDS OF THE TYNGSBOROUGH PUBLIC LIBRARY

Another used book sale has come and gone! Thank you to all in our community who donated books and items to be sold for our big fundraising effort. Special thanks go to all the teen and adult volunteers and Library staff who sorted books, helped set up for the sale and helped during and after the sale. Your efforts make it possible to raise the funds which allow us to support Library programs. One of the recent programs the Friends helped to fund was the first Merrimack River Slam Cup, a successful teen poetry competition in April which we expect to see again next year during National Poetry Month.

If you missed the book sale and still want some summer reading, there are books available for sale at the Biblioteque Café in the Library. You can relax with a cup of coffee to find something interesting to read through the summer months.

Q: If I have a library card, am I a member of the Friends?

A: Actually, these are two different things. Having a library card allows you to check out books and other great items from the Library and to use electronic resources. If you join the Friends, you are a dues-paying member of a volunteer non-profit organization whose mission is to help support our Library. The Friends raise funds primarily through membership dues, used books sales twice a year, and donations. Funds go towards Library programs, books for the Children's Library, a scholarship/service award, most of the museum and activity passes, etc. If you would like to join the Friends, please call or stop by the Library for an application. New members are always welcome, and we appreciate your support. There is also an application at <http://www.tynglib.org/index.php/friends-of-library>

June's Featured Pass: Zoo New England! At the start of the summer, enjoy the zoo with family and friends. The pass is valid at Franklin Park Zoo in Boston, and Stone Zoo in Stoneham. Each pass admits 6 people at $9 per adult and $6 per child for general daytime admission.

Our last meeting before the summer break is on Monday, June 3, 6:30 p.m. at the Library. We will return to our first Monday of the month schedule on Monday, September 9, the Monday after Labor Day at 6:30. Please join us for any and all meetings.

TYNGSBOROUGH HIGH SCHOOL

Tyngsborough High School is proud to announce Aislinn Burns, Terry Fraser-Mines, Isabel Mubiru, and Emma Strong as the May Students of the Month.

Aislinn, daughter of Gerard Burns and Kristin Donovan-Burns, is a recipient of the Principal's Award and the Tiger Pride Award. She is also a member of the honor roll. Aislinn is a member of the student council, the PALS program, and Senior Sidekicks. She played basketball for THS for two years, and has participated in soccer and track & field for four years. Aislinn volunteers her time at House of Hope, with Give Kids The World, as a food sorter for the Merrimack Valley Food Bank, and at the Tiger Pride 5k. Her favorite subjects are history and anatomy. Aislinn looks forward to getting a master's degree in history and education and to becoming a high school history teacher. "THS has taught me the importance of a great support system while providing me with amazing friendships that I am grateful for."

Terry, daughter of Tami Fraser and Dianna Mines, is a two-year member of the National Honor Society and is a recipient of the Girl Scout Gold Award. She has served as the class secretary and vice president. Terry has been a member of the theater program since 8th grade, and she has been a member of the Girl Scouts for 14 years. She has participated in cross-country, swimming, and diving for THS. She volunteers her time at various Girl Scout and NHS events. Terry's favorite subjects are Spanish, English, and math, and she looks forward to going to college at Clark University. "THS has taught me the importance and value of a small community."

Isabel, daughter of Philip and Cynthia Mubiru, is a member of the National Honor Society and a recipient of the Principal's Award. She is a four-year member of the student council and is also a member of the Senior Sidekicks program. Isabel has participated on the track & field, soccer, and tennis teams for THS. She volunteers her time for the Extended School Year Program, with the THS Spring Cleanup, with Toys For Tots, and at blood drives at THS. Isabel enjoys hanging out with her dog, Lily, and her cat, Rocket, hanging out with her friends at Chipotle, and working at the Tyngsboro Sports Center. Her favorite subjects are anatomy and history, and she looks forward to studying Political Science at the University of Maryland, to getting at job as a political consultant, and to having a family. "I have gained accountability and advocating for myself. The school has given me a really good group of supportive and wonderful friends. I will remember Homecoming, hanging in the library, and going to Ayotte's before sports."

Emma, daughter of Robert and Susan Strong, is a recipient of the Outstanding Achievement in English Award and the Principal's Award. She is a member of the National Honor Society, the volleyball club, is an editor for the yearbook, and was a co-founder of the chess club. Emma has played soccer for THS, and she currently plays tennis for the school. She volunteers her time as a Sunday School teacher, and for Next Step Ministries, where she helps rebuild communities all over the world. Emma enjoys reading (her favorite books are Anne of Green Gables, Little Women, and Things Fall Apart), playing the piano, and going out with friends. Her favorite subjects are literature, anatomy, and writing. When asked about her future plans, Emma said: "Although I say Nantucket with a sailboat, my realistic future plans are foggy. I don't have everything figured out, but I will work hard along the way." On THS, she said: "THS has taught me the value of people and the relationships you create. Yes, grades are important, but so is making a bond with your teachers so they can help and teach you even when you leave for college. I am excited to come back and tell Mrs. Times and Ms. Bensaia all that I have learned."

Congratulations to these four students.

In addition, members shared birthday cake in celebration of the 101st Birthday of Altrusa International, Inc.

The Altrusa Club of Merrimack Valley is offering a $500 scholarship to a qualified student currently enrolled in the Bachelor of Science in Nursing Program at Rivier University. LOADING DOCK GALLERY

122 Western Avenue Lowell, MA 01851

Coastal Impressions in Paint and Pixels
Through June 30, 2019

Come and revel in the beauty of the New England sea shore at the Loading Dock Gallery's exhibit Coastal Impressions in Paint and Pixels. Explore John Baumann's compelling photographs of iconic New England fishing villages and contemporary landscape painter Bethany Peck's "Inner Light" expressionistic oil paintings on copper and reflective metal.

Baumann, Originally from West Texas, is drawn to the history of the people and communities along the New England Seacoast. His images reveal the hidden treasures found in the intricate detail of structures, reflections and commercial fishing vessels. Baumann discovers unique locations and patiently waits for pleasing natural light to cascade over his subjects. The resulting photographs embody peace, inspiration, and recollections of pleasant seaside memories.

Peck's paintings use natural elements of Heaven, Earth, Water and Fire to evoke emotion. She is not interested in literal interpretations of her subjects, but instead, paints in an affective state in which joy, sorrow fear and anger are translated onto the canvas. To abstract the practical, she emphasizes color and form to create her mesmerizing paintings. In her newest collection, metal surfaces serve to capture light and suggest shimmering reflections.

The Loading Dock Gallery, a part of Loading Dock Arts, Inc., a 501c3, is open Wednesday through Saturday from Noon to 5:30 PM, and Sunday from Noon to 4 PM. For more information, call 978-985-0695 or Email at LDGgallery@gmail.com. or visit www.theloadingdockgallery.com.

NASHUA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Saturday, June 8, 2019 at 2:00 p.m.

OUR TOWN, OUR SCHOOLS, THEIR WORDS

Using annual reports from Nashua during the 1840's-1850's, examine how town fathers addressed public education in their one-room schools. These chroniclers were prolific writers who made VERY candid observations on the state of their eleven schools and never minced words! They both praise and critique teachers, scholars and parents! They discuss in detail, the progress and deficiencies in teaching methods, materials and discipline. They write about the conditions in the schools and chastise the public for their lack of support on countless issues. Come to find out how, "the more things change, the more they stay the same." This is an entertaining and visual presentation with fascinating handouts!

All programs are presented at The Nashua Historical Society, 5 Abbott Street, Nashua, New Hampshire. The programs are free and open to the public. For more information please email: nashuahistorical@comcast.net, call 603-883-0015 or visit our website: nashuahistoricalociety.org

Please visit The Nashua Historical Society's changing exhibit case at Nashua's City Hall. The current exhibit is a history of the Pheasant Lane Mall.

ESSEX COUNTY SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT PARTNERS WITH MIDDLESEX SHERIFF'S OFFICE TO COMPLETE INTERACTIVE TRAINING

MIDDLETON, Mass. – 87 members of the Essex County Sheriff's Department (ECSD) have completed an interactive firearms training organized in conjunction with the Middlesex Sheriff's Office (MSO), Sheriffs Kevin F. Coppinger and Peter J. Koutoujian announced today.

The training was held on the MSO's Mobile Training Center (MTC), a specialized trailer that allows officers to practice their responses to critical incidents. MSO officers who operate the MTC can offer unique scenarios for each user to test their firearm, communication and de-escalation skills.

"We are proud to share this resource with our law enforcement colleagues at ECSD. Our agencies regularly participate in trainings together, from our Crisis Intervention Training program to continuing education opportunities for staff, but this represents a new avenue for partnership," said Sheriff Koutoujian. "This training allows officers to work through real life scenarios and practice their responses to a serious incident, all while receiving constructive feedback from ECSD instructors and MSO officers."

The MTC was stationed at the Middleton House of Correction from April 22 – May 3. ECSD staff practiced scenarios specifically tailored for the environments that deputies operate in, such as construction details which may involve a traffic encounter and inmate transportation.

"Providing the most advanced training to our correctional officers is a priority of our department. We continually strive to provide high quality, situational training to our officers. Sharing this interactive training platform is an example of how Sheriffs' Departments in the Commonwealth collaborate for the benefit of public safety," said Sheriff Kevin Coppinger.

In 2018, 19 police departments were trained through the MTC. So far this year, nine agencies – including the Essex County Sheriff's Department – have utilized the MTC for at least one week of training.

TIPS FROM THE RED CROSS

The American Red Cross wants everyone to enjoy the season and offers safety tips you can follow all summer long.

WATER SAFETY

Before going in, on or around the water, every family member should become "water smart." This starts with learning to be safe, making good choices, and learning to swim to at least achieve the skills of water competency. Everyone should be able to enter the water, get a breath, stay afloat, change position, swim a distance and then get out of the water safely. A variety of water safety courses and resources are available at redcross.org/watersafety.

- Prevent unsupervised access to water. Fence pools and spas with adequate barriers, keep a constant eye for any water dangers such as portable splash pools/slides, buckets, and bathtubs.
- Adults- actively supervise children and stay within arm's reach of young children and new swimmers. Kids-follow the rules.
- Always wear a U.S. Coast Guard-approved life jacket when on a boat and if in a situation beyond someone's skill level.
- Swim as a pair near a lifeguard's chair – everyone, including experienced swimmers, should swim with a buddy in areas protected by lifeguards.
- Designate a 'Water Watcher' to keep a close eye and constant attention on children and weaker swimmers in and around the water until the next Water Watcher takes over.
- Download the Red Cross Swim App for kid-friendly games and activities and water safety information for parents and caregivers of young people learning how to swim. Download the app for free by searching for 'American Red Cross' in your app store or at redcross.org/apps.
